

Listing of Potential Abstinence Education Curriculum Vendors/Publishers

This listing of vendor/publisher website addresses and telephone numbers is not all inclusive and is provided by the department solely at the request of prospective providers of abstinence education projects as a source to aid in locating potential abstinence education curricula. It is not to be construed in any way as an endorsement or approval by the department of any curricula or other material offered by any vendor/publisher contained on the listing. The Florida Abstinence Education Program adheres to the federal guidelines for exclusion of the teaching of religion within funded programs. All curricula and educational material for use in state or federally funded abstinence education programs must not violate these restrictions on sectarian activities.
